

Vineland – The Names

ÄAnne Troester and Dirk Vanderbeke

The following index was compiled to help us save time in reading Vineland in a reading group at J.W. Goethe University, Frankfurt. In fact it actually cost us quite a lot of time, since Frankfurt is obviously not the best place to look up the names of American game-show hosts or radio-show characters. Thus, the following index is almost certainly incomplete, occasionally faulty, and definitely improvable.

Here we would like to thank Danette Woodmansee who looked over our first draft, sent in many corrections, and thus helped us to attain the present state of imperfection.

We are sure that the editors of Pynchon Notes would appreciate further corrections and notices of omissions as much as we would, so please notify them about errors as there is no use in sending the information across the Atlantic twice.
